

PUB COMPANY ON LOOK OUT FOR SHEFFIELD LANDLORDS

Sheffield pub goers who have always fancied swapping sides of the bar are invited to attend an open day at the Don Valley Stadium on Thursday 23 April.

Admiral Taverns has organised an event in the VIP grandstand at the stadium on Worksop Road between 11.30am and 5.30pm, to help people find out more about the pub industry and what it takes to be a landlord.

Admiral's team of Business Development Managers (BDMs) will be on hand to provide information about how to get started and what support is available to both industry newcomers and people who already have pub experience.

Paul Holmes, marketing communications manager at Admiral Taverns, said: "We have a number of available pubs in the area and an estate of over 2,000 pubs nationwide so we're always on the lookout for people who are interested in running their own pub business.

"Being a landlord is a lifestyle choice as much as it is a chance to become your own boss, and having the right personality and attitude is crucial. Experience isn't necessary. Having the drive and stamina to run a pub well is most important.

"The event is designed to tell people more about how to become a landlord and get behind the bar. We encourage our landlords to run our pubs their way and offer great choice and flexibility in terms of tenancy and lease agreements, along with substantial support from our team of Business Development Managers, to make sure all of our pubs are a success."

Anyone interested in running a pub can visit Don Valley Stadium, Worksop Road, Sheffield S9 3TL on Thursday 23 April between 11.30am and 5.30pm. Visit www.admiraltaverns.com for further information.
